

The Law Society: Solicitors of the Future TY Programme 2021

Date: 15th – 18th February 2021

The Law Society of Ireland is delighted to announce that our innovative transition year work experience programme, Solicitors of the Future, will take place online in February 2021.

Solicitors of the Future is an innovative Transition Year (TY) work experience programme offered at the Law Society of Ireland which provides students with an introduction to the solicitor's profession. Open to schools around the country, Solicitors of the Future encourages TY students to consider a career in law and offers an insight into the role of a solicitor in practice. In addition, this TY programme shows how the law can be relevant to the daily lives of participants and promotes awareness of the legal processes, constitutional principles, and values which underpin the rule of law in Ireland.

Due to the ongoing restrictions imposed as a result of the Covid-19 pandemic the programme will take place entirely online and will run from Monday 15 February 2021 until Thursday 18 February 2021.

Further details on the programme and how schools who are interested can nominate a student will be sent out in January 2021.

Places on the programme are limited and will be allocated to schools through a lottery system.
