

10th Annual National Secondary School Essay-Writing Competition

For Transition & 5th Year Students

Dr Aoibheann Ni Shuilleabhain, an assistant Professor in UCD and former exam corrector, has described the Leaving Cert as a “trend of the past”. She explains that “If we start looking under the hood a little bit, the CAO system, the Leaving Cert system, isn't as fair as we might think.”

To what extent is the current one-exam system of the Leaving Cert suitable and fair for students? Is there a better system that could be implemented in Ireland?
