

'The Full Story' Writing Competition

To help showcase the amazing creativity of our TY students, Loreto College Foxrock, Loreto College St Stephen's Green and Loreto High School Beaufort, are running our very first annual 'Tri-College' writing competition in honour of the Bicentenary of Teresa Ball. We are also delighted to announce that the author Dave Rudden, will be the independent adjudicator for the competition this year.

The winning entry will receive a €50 voucher and the runner(s)up a €30 voucher. Winning and runner-up pieces may be published on the respective college websites and/or yearbooks. Best of luck to you all and we look forward to seeing your Shakespeare side!

Closing Date

April 25th 2022. Please email your submission to your OWN school librarian.

St Stephen's Green students, please attach your entry as a document and email to: library@loretothegreen.ie.

Students need to put 'The Full Story' in the email 'Subject' field

Loreto College Foxrock students, please attach your entry as a document and email to: library@loretofoxrock.ie.

Students need to put 'The Full Story' in the email 'Subject' field

Loreto Beaufort students, please attach your entry as a document and email to: library@loretobeaufort.ie. Students need to put 'The Full Story' in the email 'Subject' field

Criteria

1. A short story/piece of prose*/poetry inspired by the quote:

'We make a living by what we get; We make a life by what we give'

OR

2. A short story/piece of prose*/poetry containing the phrase:

'If you're going through Hell, keep going''

OR

3. A short story/piece of prose*/poetry inspired by the following image

PLEASE NOTE: Short story/Prose option = Maximum of 1500 words.