

Classics/Latin

Extra-curricular Subject

Loreto College, Foxrock

Dear Parents,

Below are the times that the extra-curricular Latin /Classics will take place. All lessons will take place in room E3. They will start from next week – the 19th of September.

We have two times for both the Classical Mythology and the Latin class to facilitate all students times. Students only need attend one Classical Mythology (Monday or Friday) and one Latin class (Wednesday or Thursday) per week. The same material will be covered.

Classical Mythology classes:

Either

Mondays at 4.10pm – 5.10pm with Senor Suarez

or

Friday at 8.00am – 8.45am with Mr. O' Sullivan/Ms McKenna

Latin class:

Either

Wednesdays at 8.00am – 8.45am with Mr. O' Sullivan

or

Thursday lunchtime at 1.25pm – 1.55pm with Mr. O' Sullivan

We would ask students to take both Classical Mythology and Latin together. As they are both one subject. In order sit any Junior Level exam – be it the Euroclassica or the Cambridge – they would need to do both.

We will allow for one week for students to try the subject and decide if they enjoy it and wish to continue. We would then ask students to commit to the classes thereafter. Teachers are offering to give up their own time to teach these lessons and we would expect students to treat them like any other subject or extra-curricular activity.

All the best,

Mr. O' Sullivan
